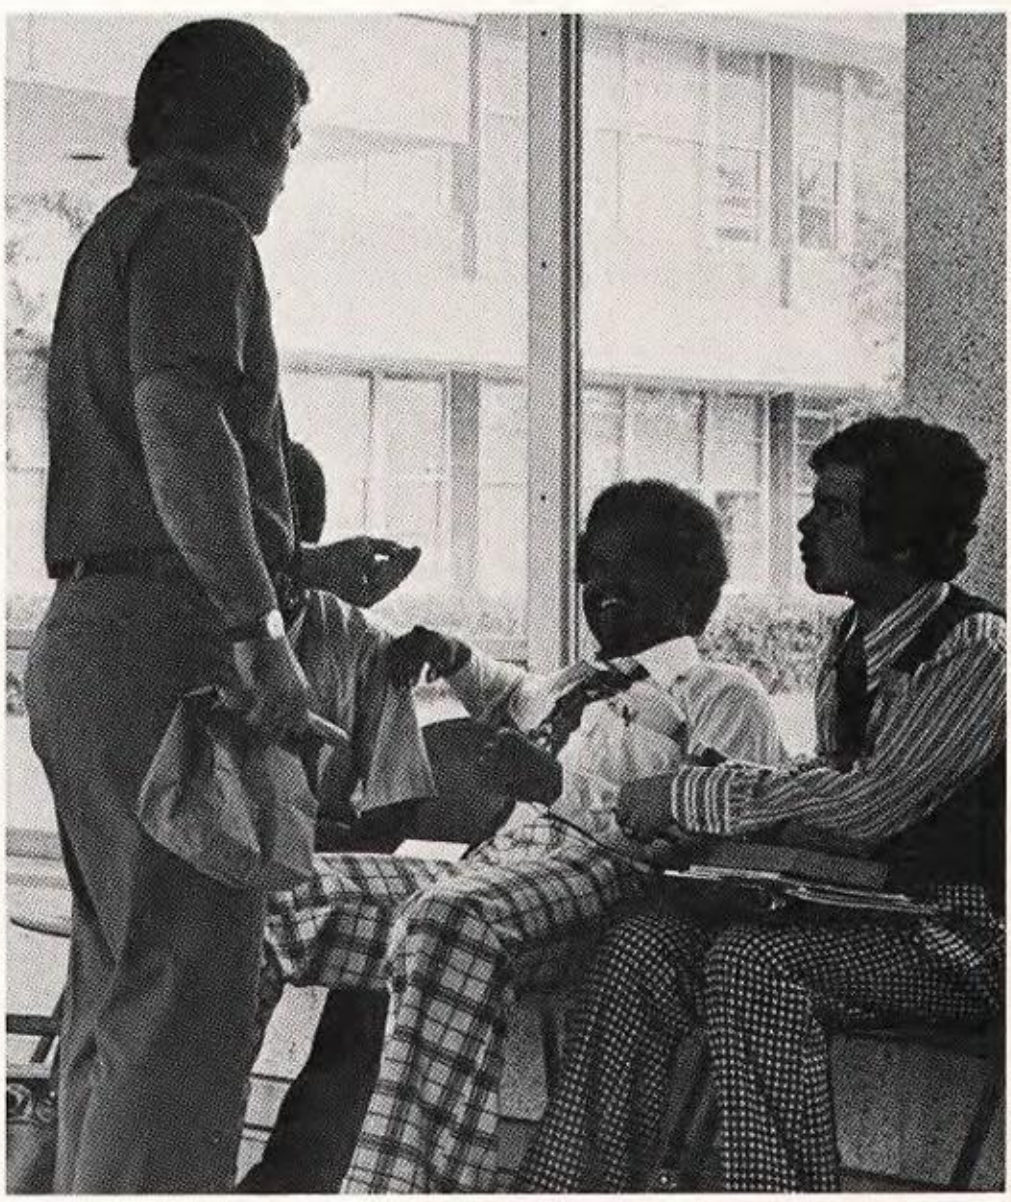
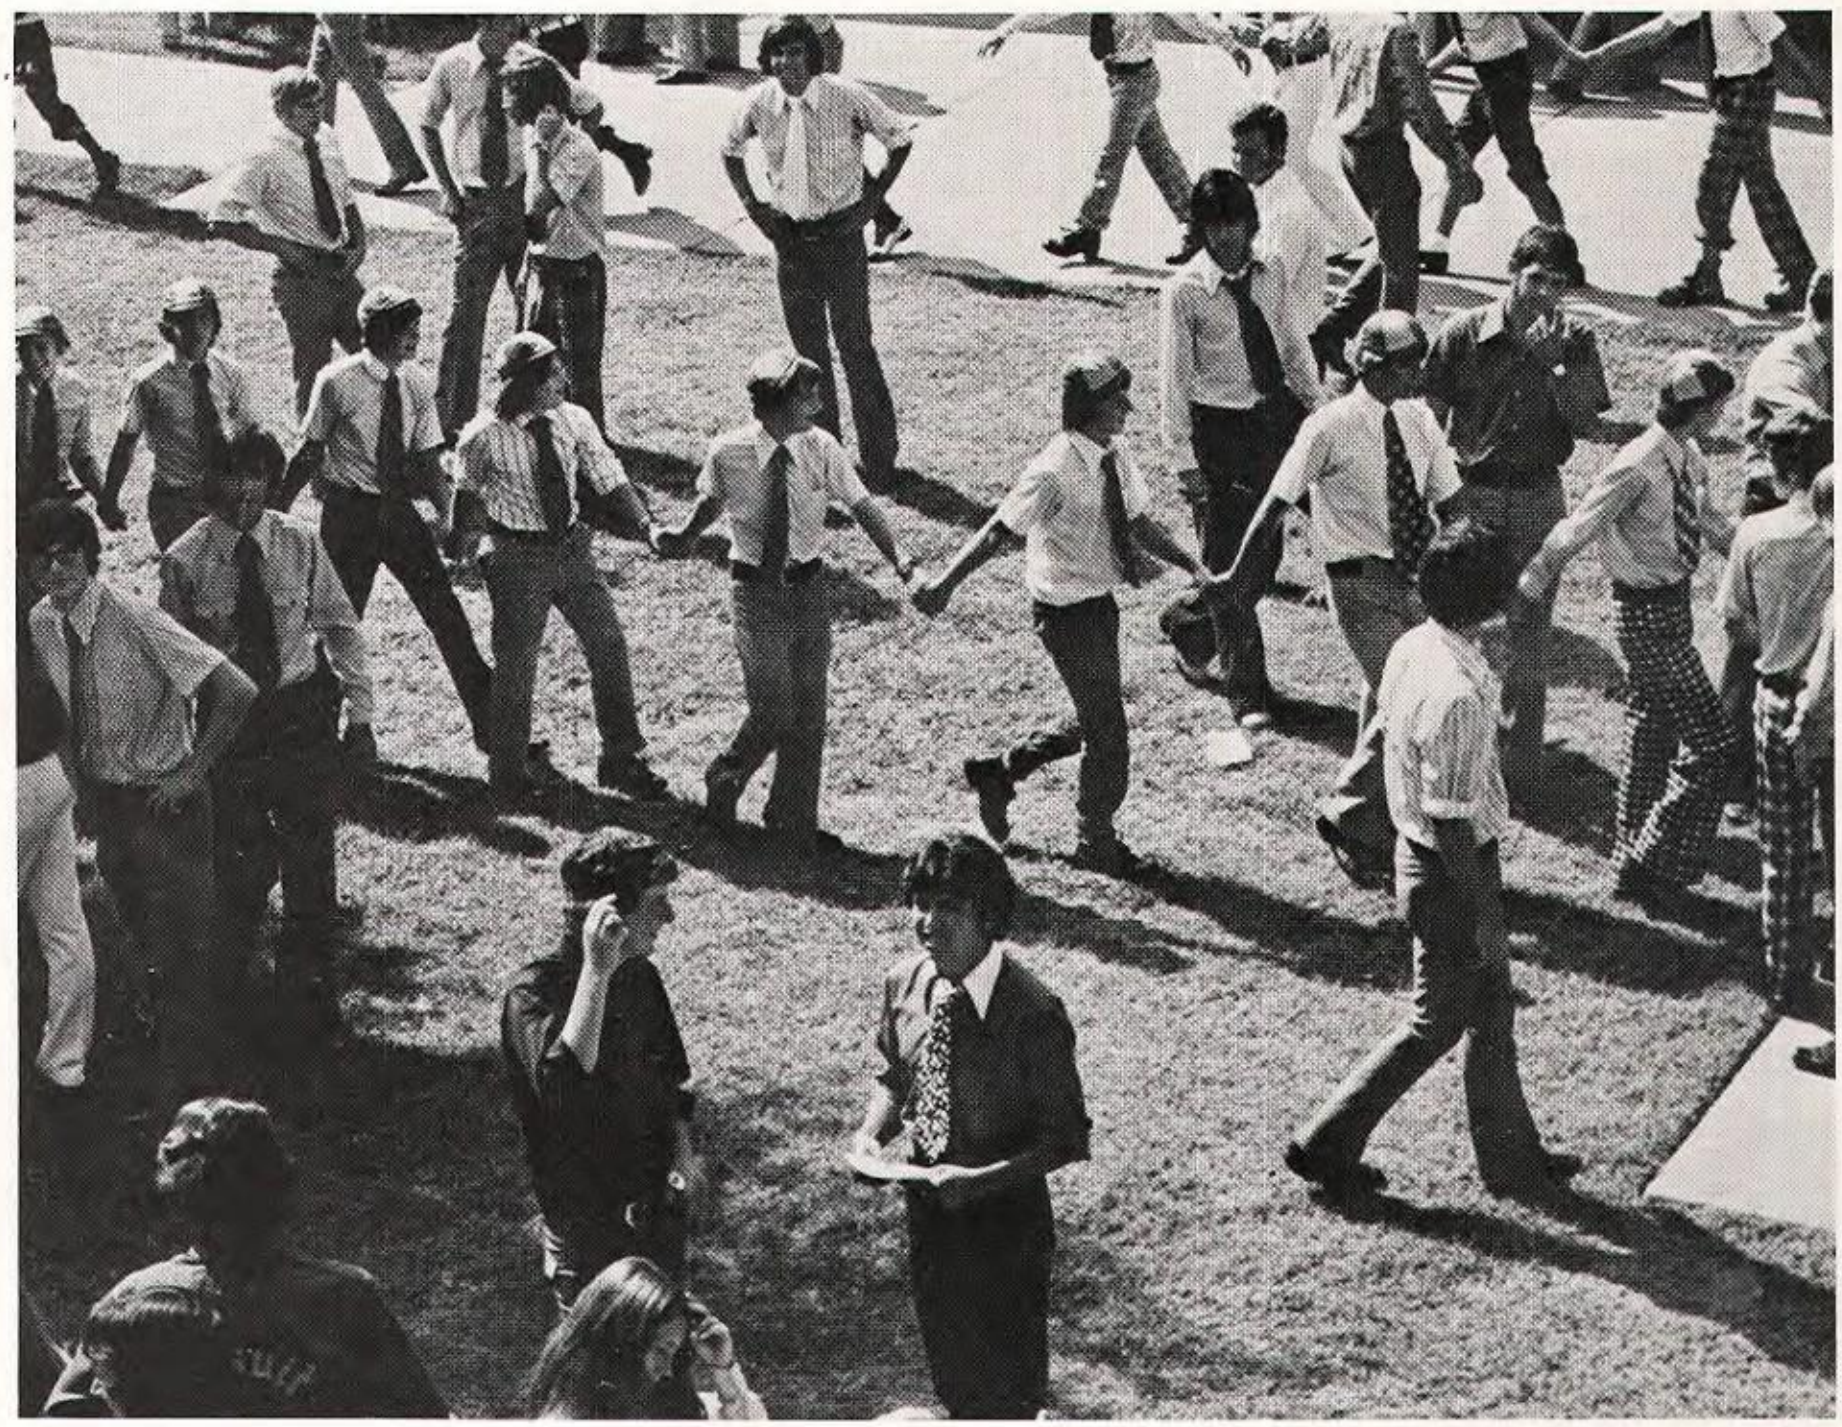
"For me there is only the traveling on the paths that have a heart, on any path that may have a heart. There I travel — looking, looking breathlessly."



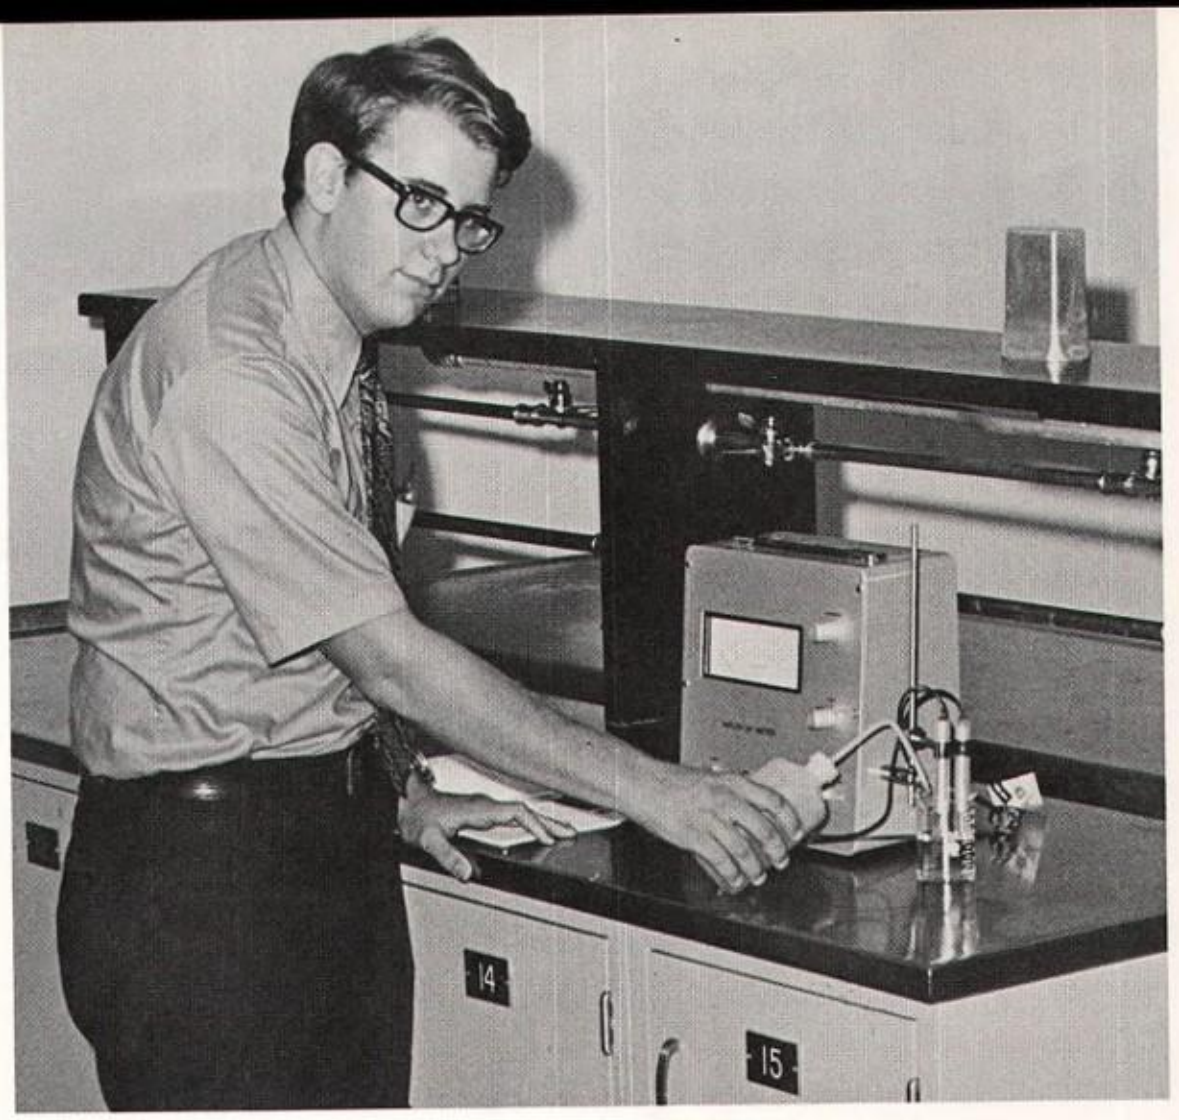
Traveling the path of learning, joining . . .



. . . experience.

Languid summer is shattered and we turn to face another year. Some timidly embarking on a fearful new adventure. "And what of Seniors?" Hiding behind antics, we quake with realization that we will soon be set upon by change and separation. We grasp our days lest they slip away shapeless and untouched.

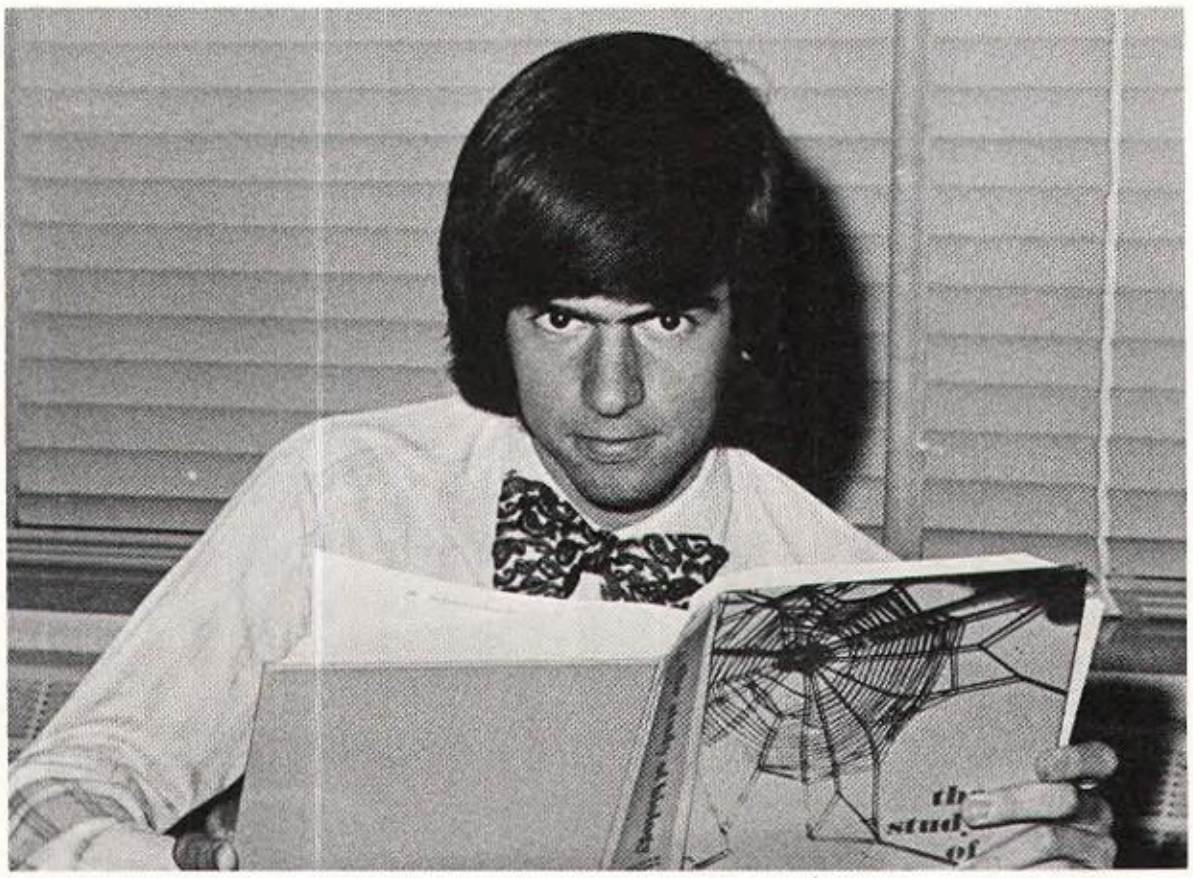
Paths of humor.



This is an ampmeter not a Dork!

. . . and she started caressing my letter jacket with her ears.

No, my name is not Pat.



Biology is not what is Happening.

With her ears?!

Finally, brethren, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, . . . think about these things.

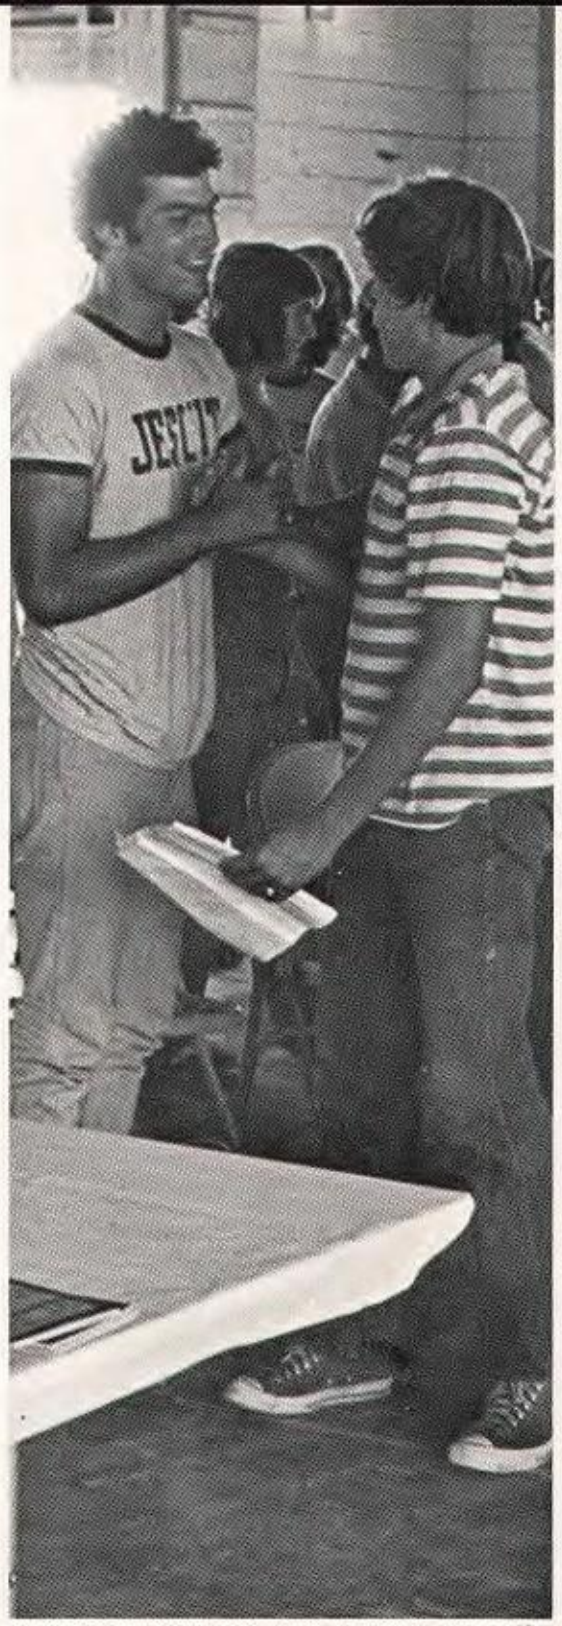
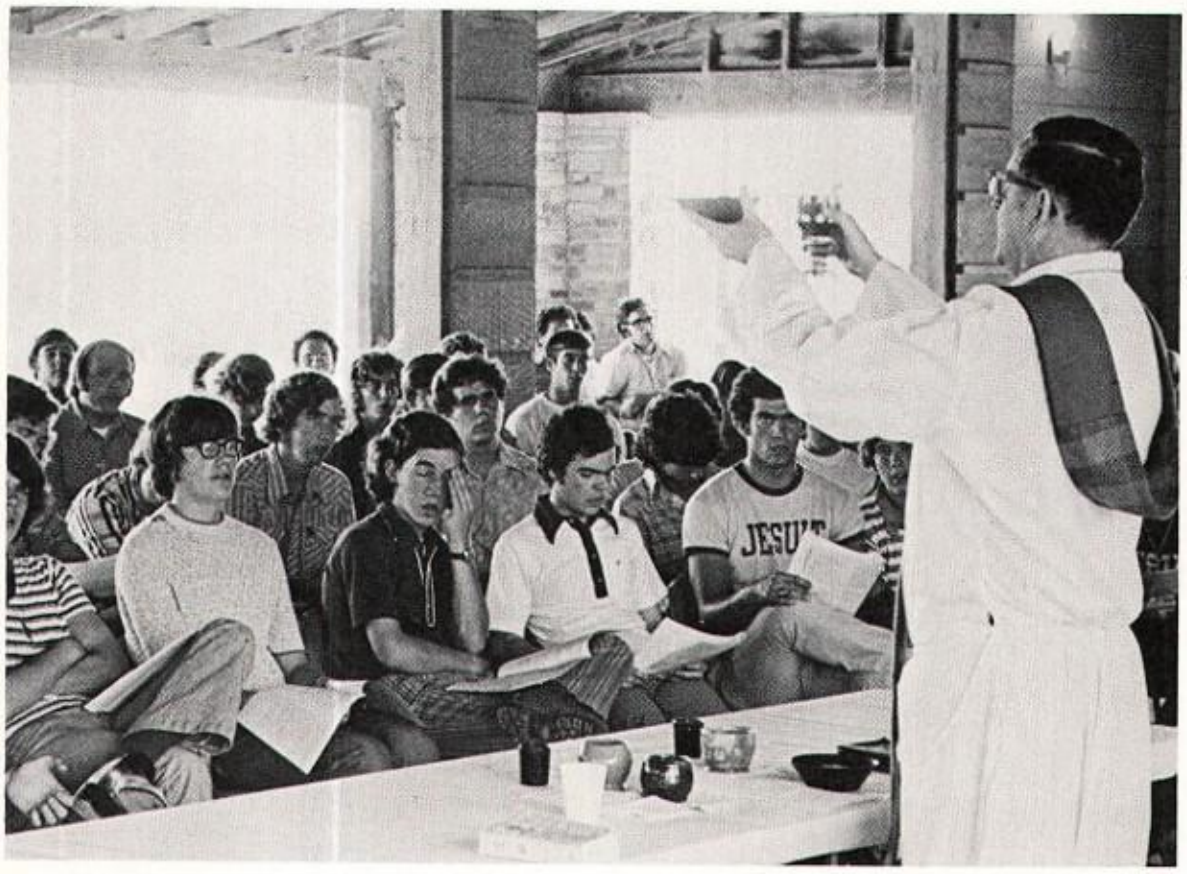
John Savage



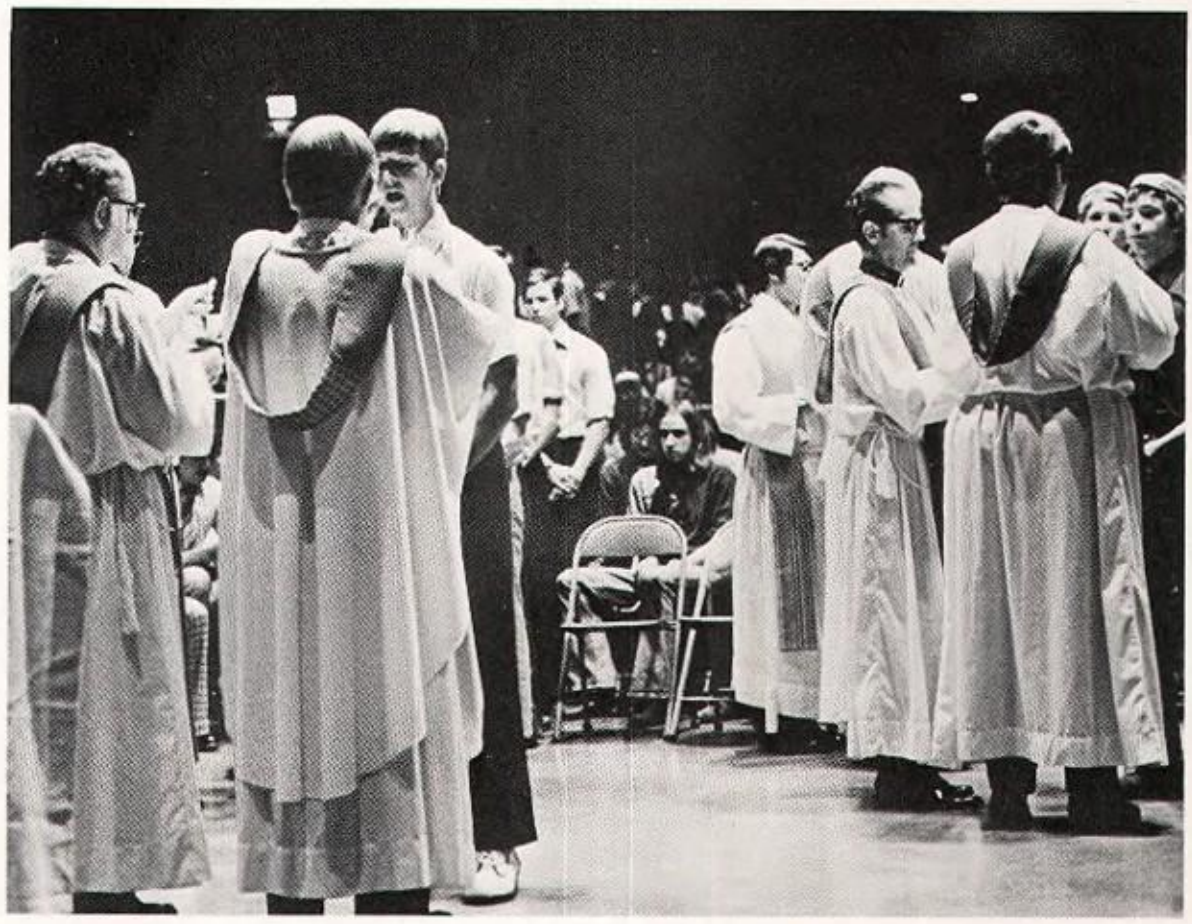
Paths to Community.

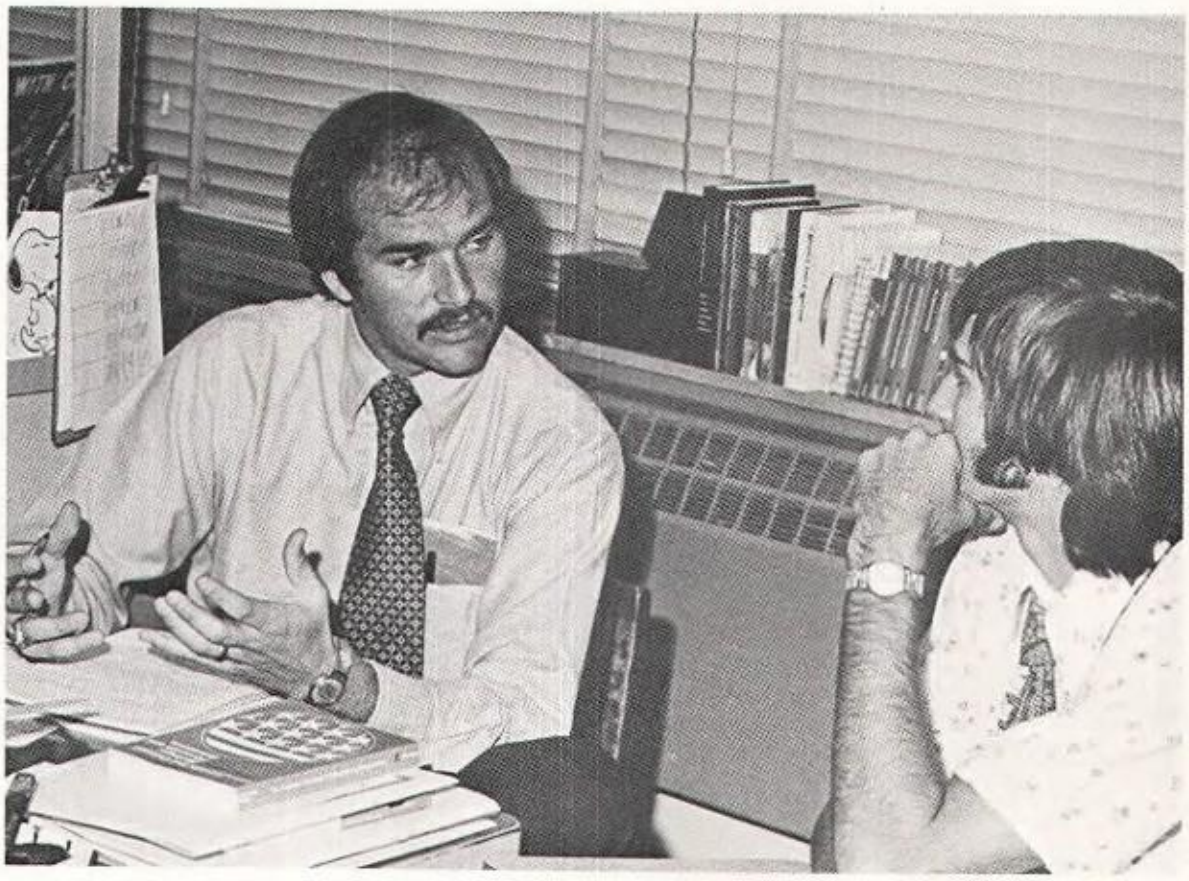


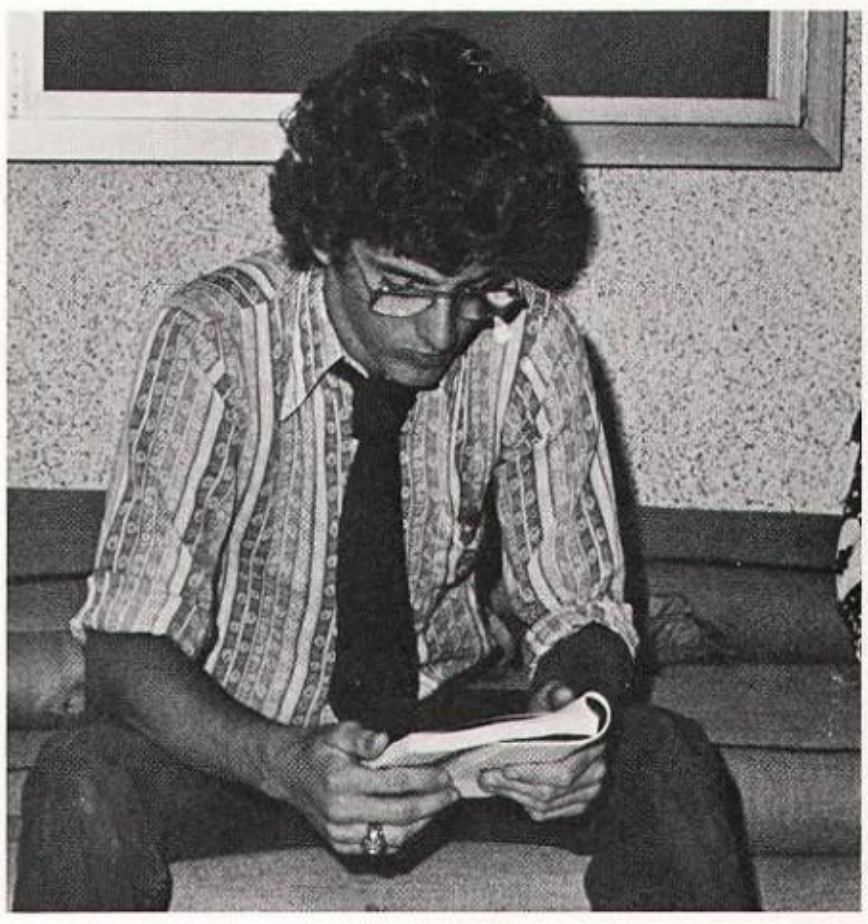
The strangest thing happened. For a little while we watched, unharried. In the silence of the night we came to see each other in a common candle's glow. The moment has passed, but we exist as shimmering crystals within others' minds.

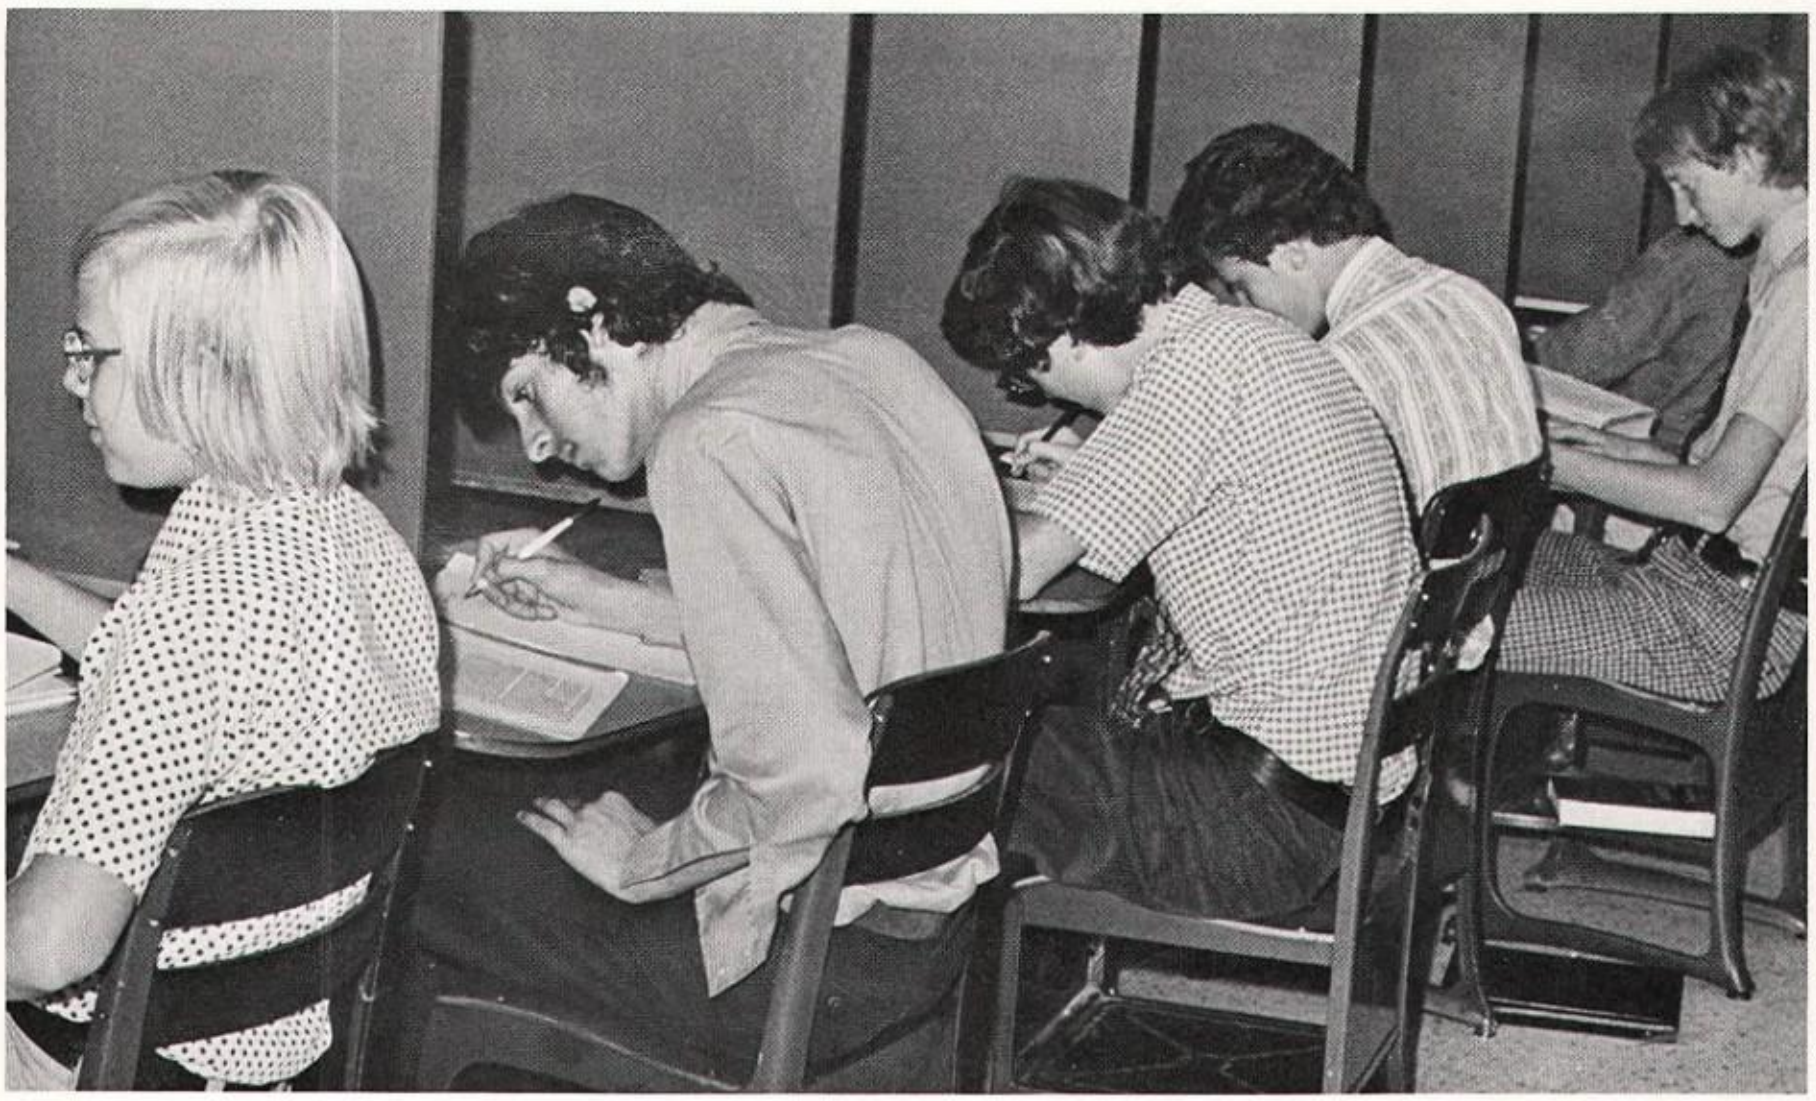
IMMERSION

People and ideas whirl past in a blur. As the weeks pass without a time when there is nothing to do, we feel a growing need to do nothing for awhile. Life becomes a series of questions and we must decide what to neglect. We live in anguish, fearing we have chosen wrongly.









One does not make a plant. A man cannot know how a seed will develop, but if he does his best to help it grow, it can attain its own special beauty. Whether towering pine or tiny, delicate flower, both are tributes to a gardener's wisdom.

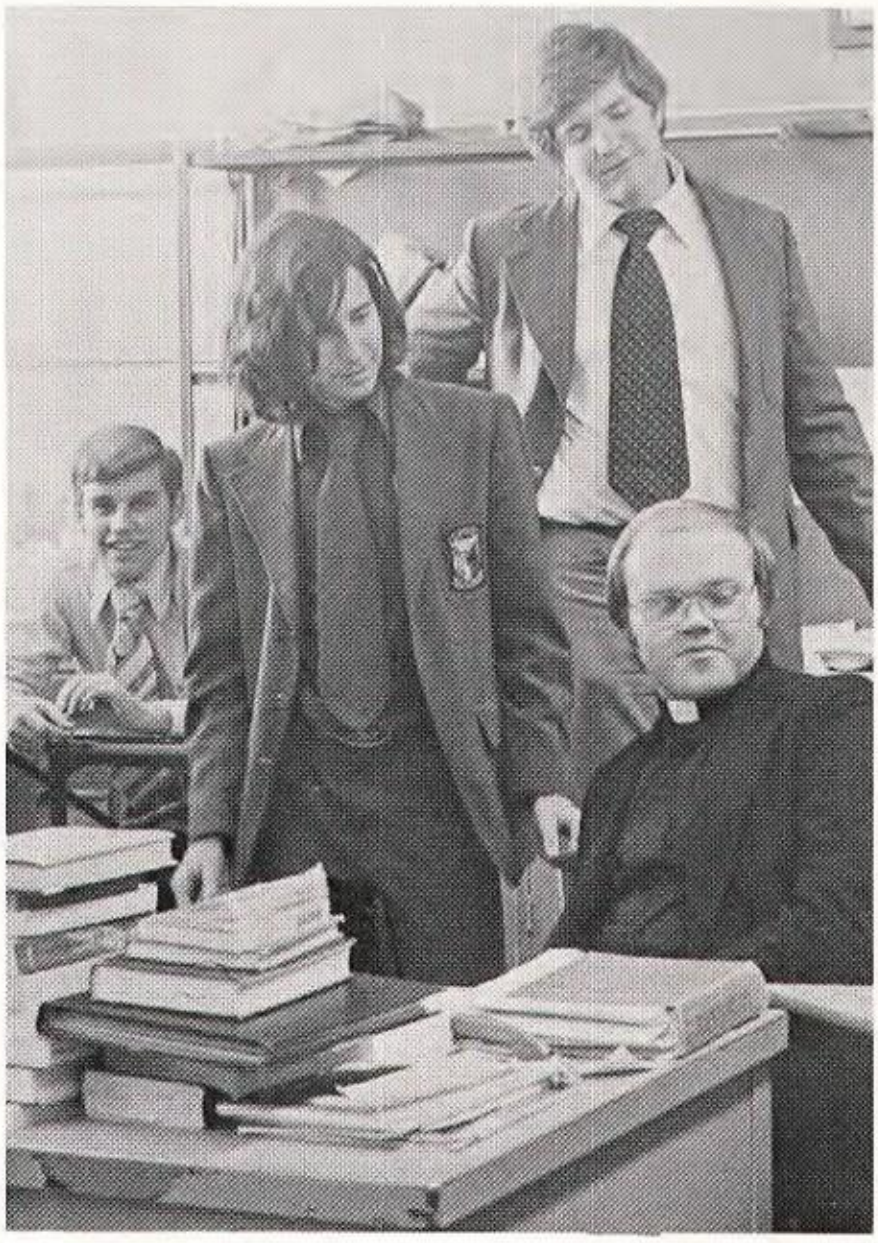
We lie anchored yearning for the swift-wave path. Hopeful in our wait to learn, the way of the waves, the way of the path.



In 1973-1974 a very special path for several Jesuit students was that of Junior year. A path full of struggle, expectation, and hope. The Last Roundup salutes a class of promise.

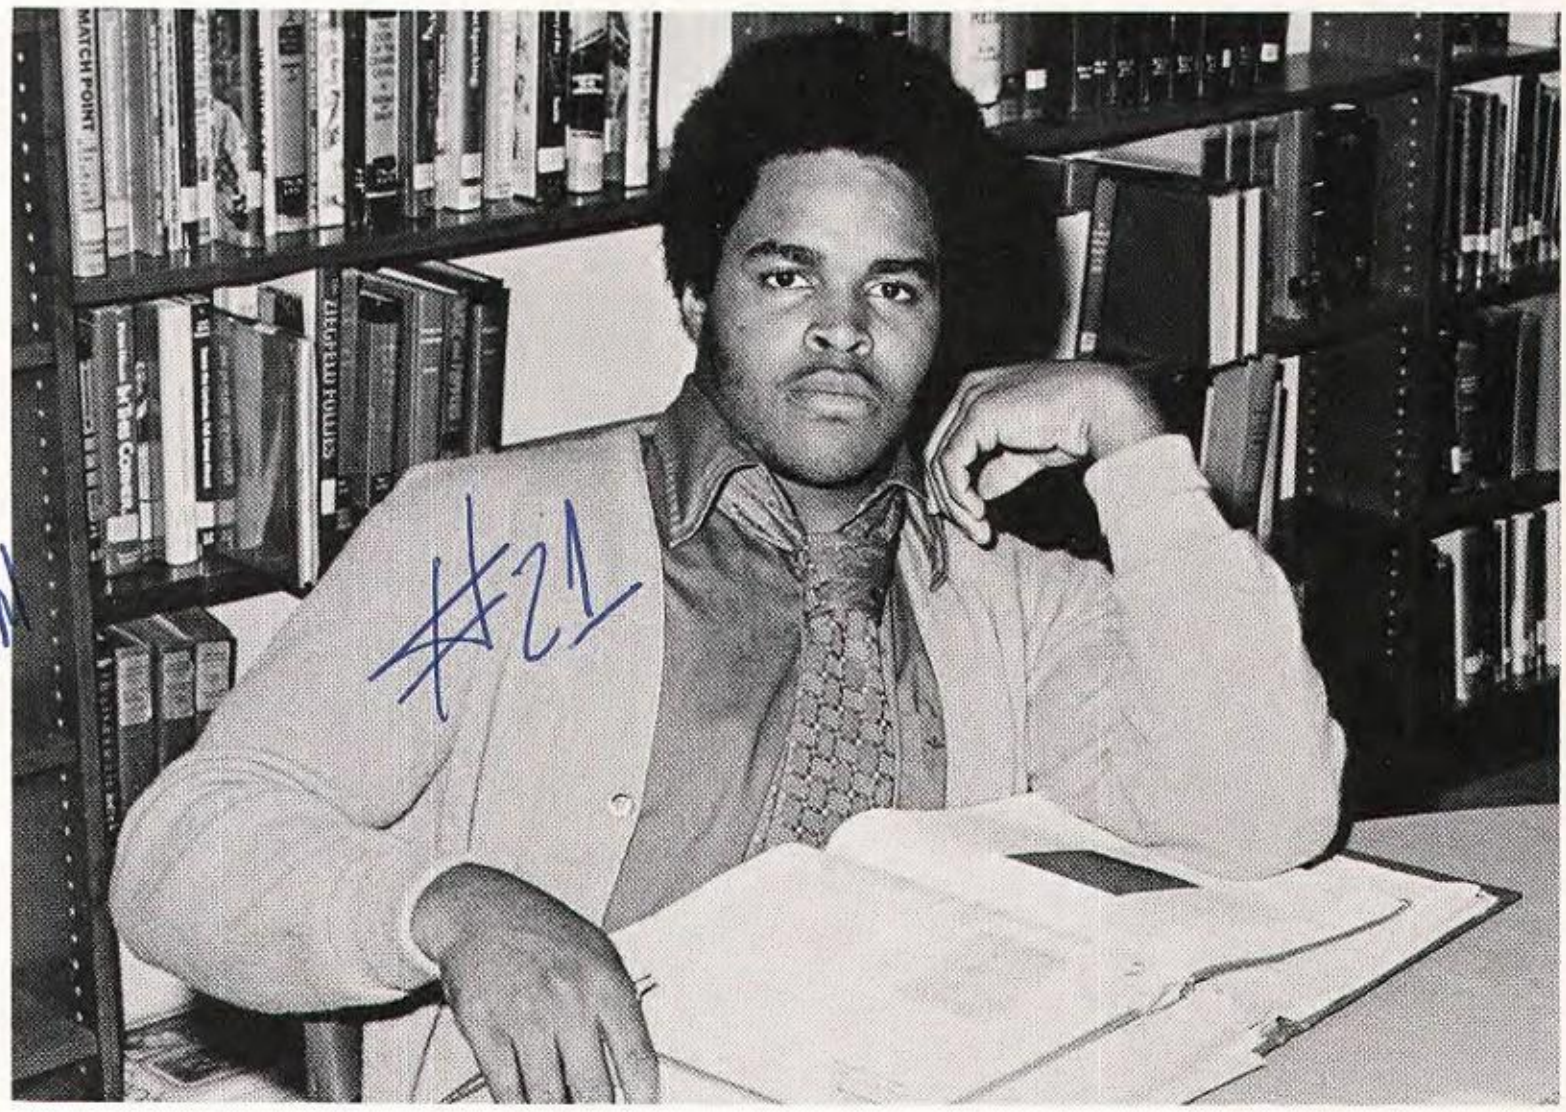
Intermezzo



As we go to press, two of our seniors, Anthony Harden (above) and Brent Elkins (below) have been named to All American teams. That two players should receive this type of award in one year is rare, and we extend congratulations for their achievements.

The student staff of the Last Roundup would like to recognize Mr. Jack Eiffert, Miss Janie Greggs, Mr. Bill Schuster, Mrs. Dee Powell, and Mr. D. E. Oglesby for their work at Jesuit this year. Each of them has made some special contribution in some new endeavor, some new path, and we feel that they deserve our thanks.

"Colin Fletcher, with the canyon's beauty spread at his feet, turns his back on a confrontation with himself, the hunter immersed in and united with his world. He slips into the secondhand abstractions of literature. My senses scream a warning to my mind, lest it be lost in the desolate maze of a physics textbook. Thirty-seven oil drums empty themselves into a thimble. I close my eyes, stop my ears and cut myself off from the flood of human experience, choosing to cling to this merciless rock and ignore the thunderous ocean."

"Meanwhile the world is running out of long lines of poetry, short lines of love.
Do you know how blizzards of heat
engulf summer in their moveless storms?"

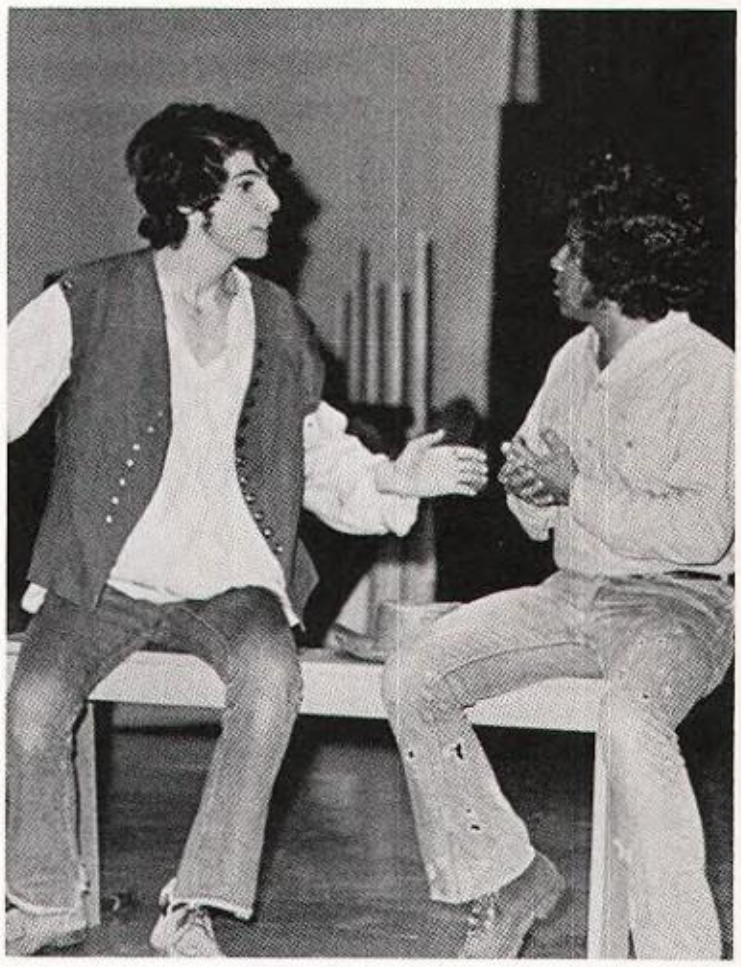
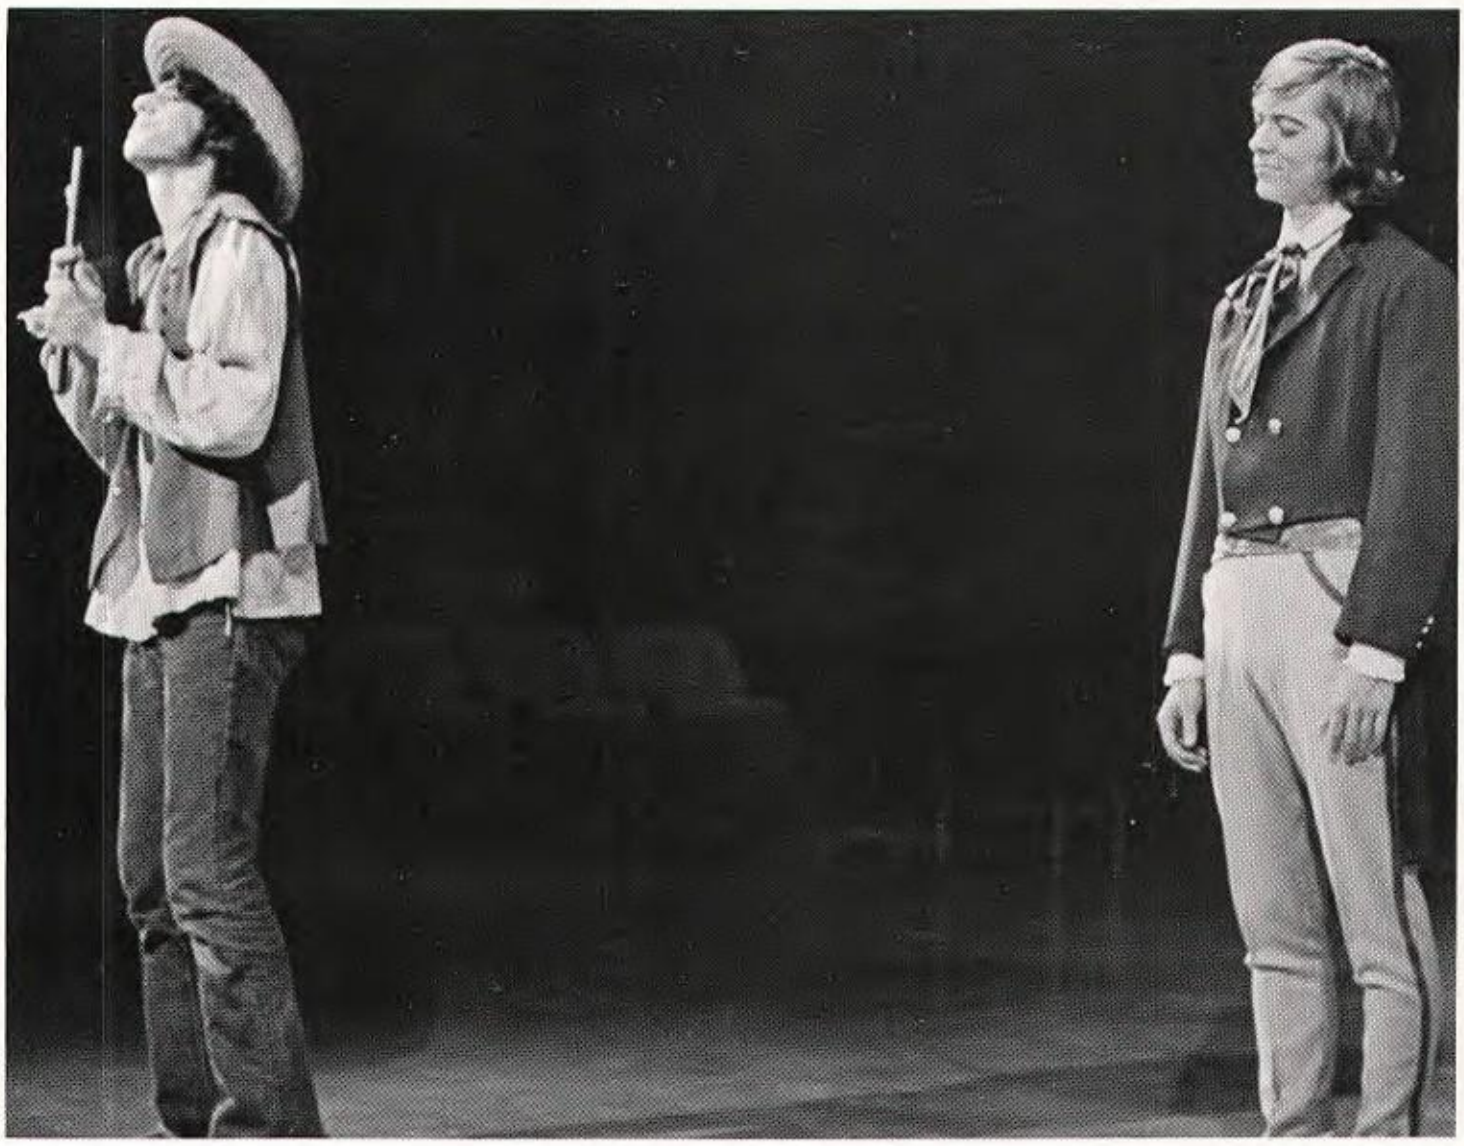
The teachers of Heywood's Meadow.



Thoreau (Salem) warns Henry Williams (Perez) about slavery in the North.

Thoreau is hired as a handyman by the Emerson family.

Staples (Hanschen) and the Deacon (Cabrera) watch as the farmer (Garvey) urges Thoreau to pay his poll tax.



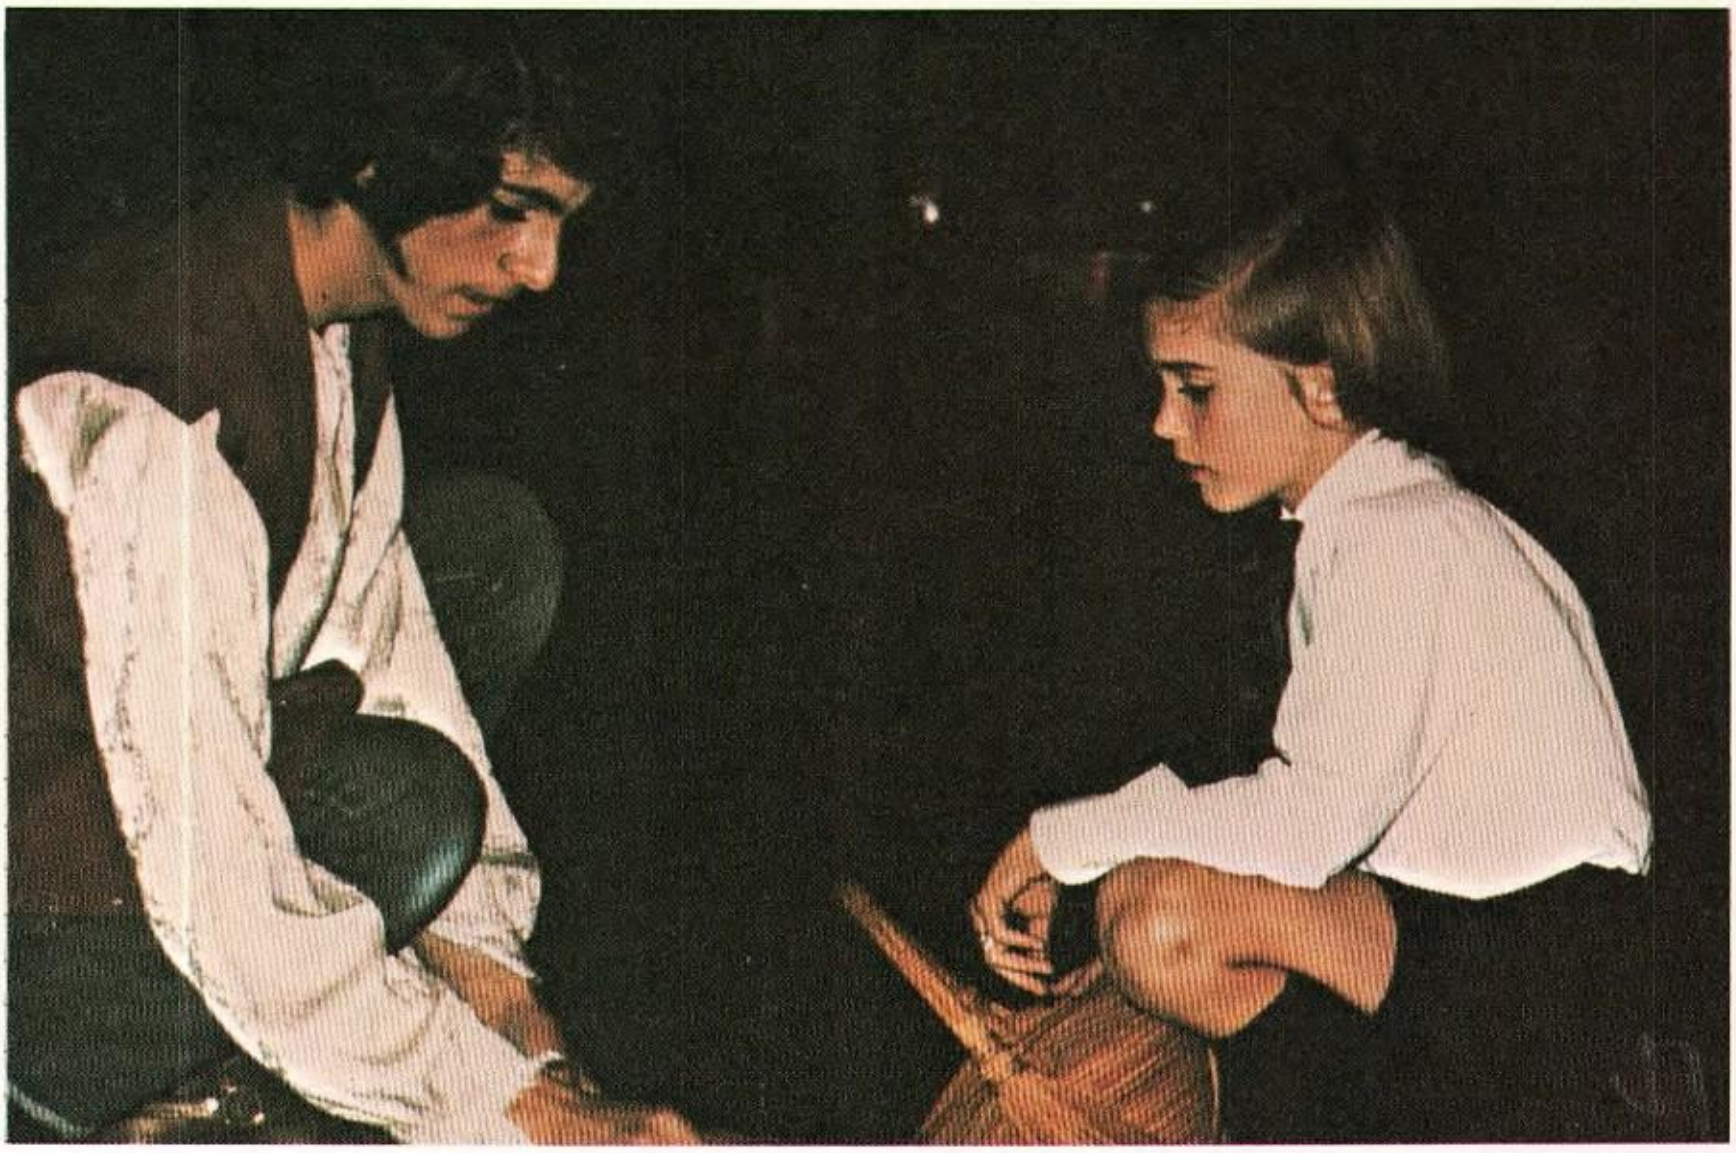
Mark Goodman keeps his distance.

Mike Goedecke as Waldo Emerson and Jody Marz as Lydian.

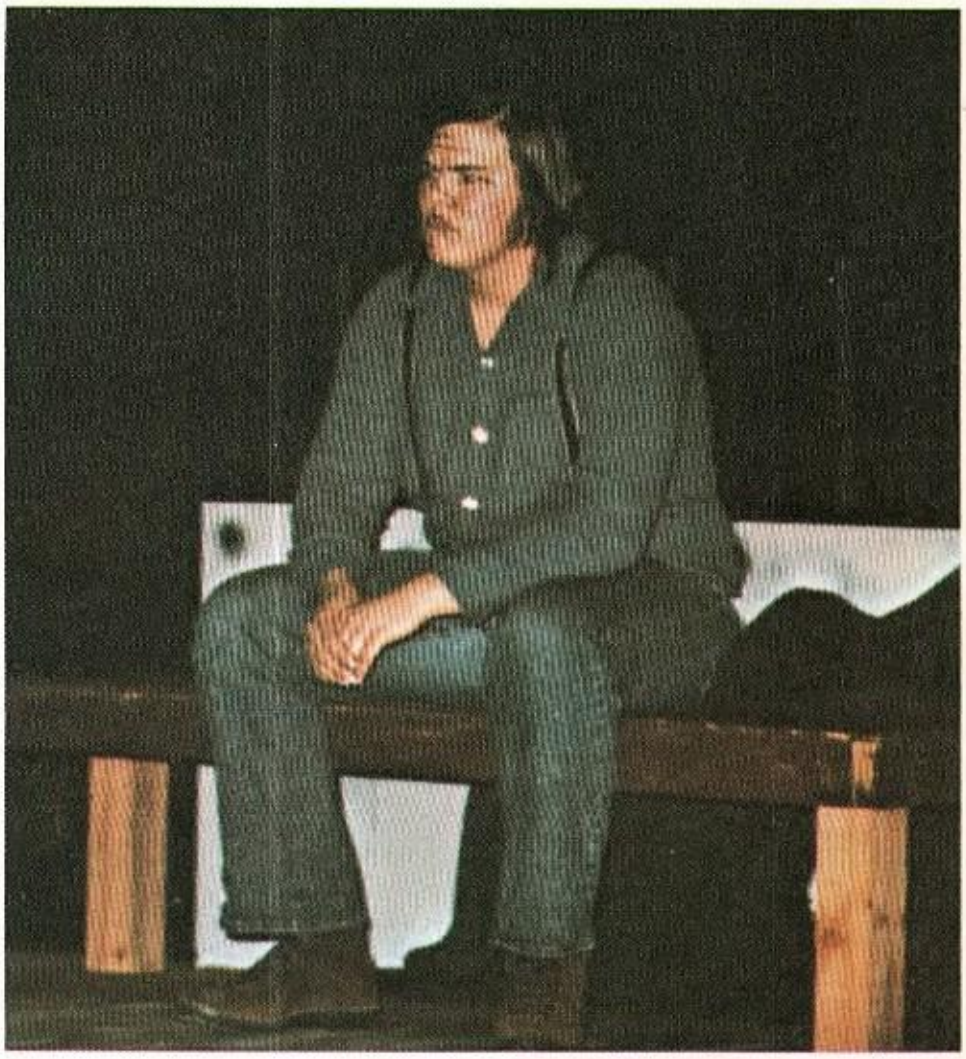
Vanderholt

Fr. Vanderholt has been giving of his time and great talent to produce and direct at Jesuit, excellent high school theater. He is a modest man thus no picture of him appears here. All those who have enjoyed the fine productions at Jesuit owe Fr. Vanderholt thanks for his efforts. Those that have labored in his productions have learnt much and they thus have grown. From those that watch and those that participate a deep applause of thanks is offered.

Joanne Connolly as Henry's mother.



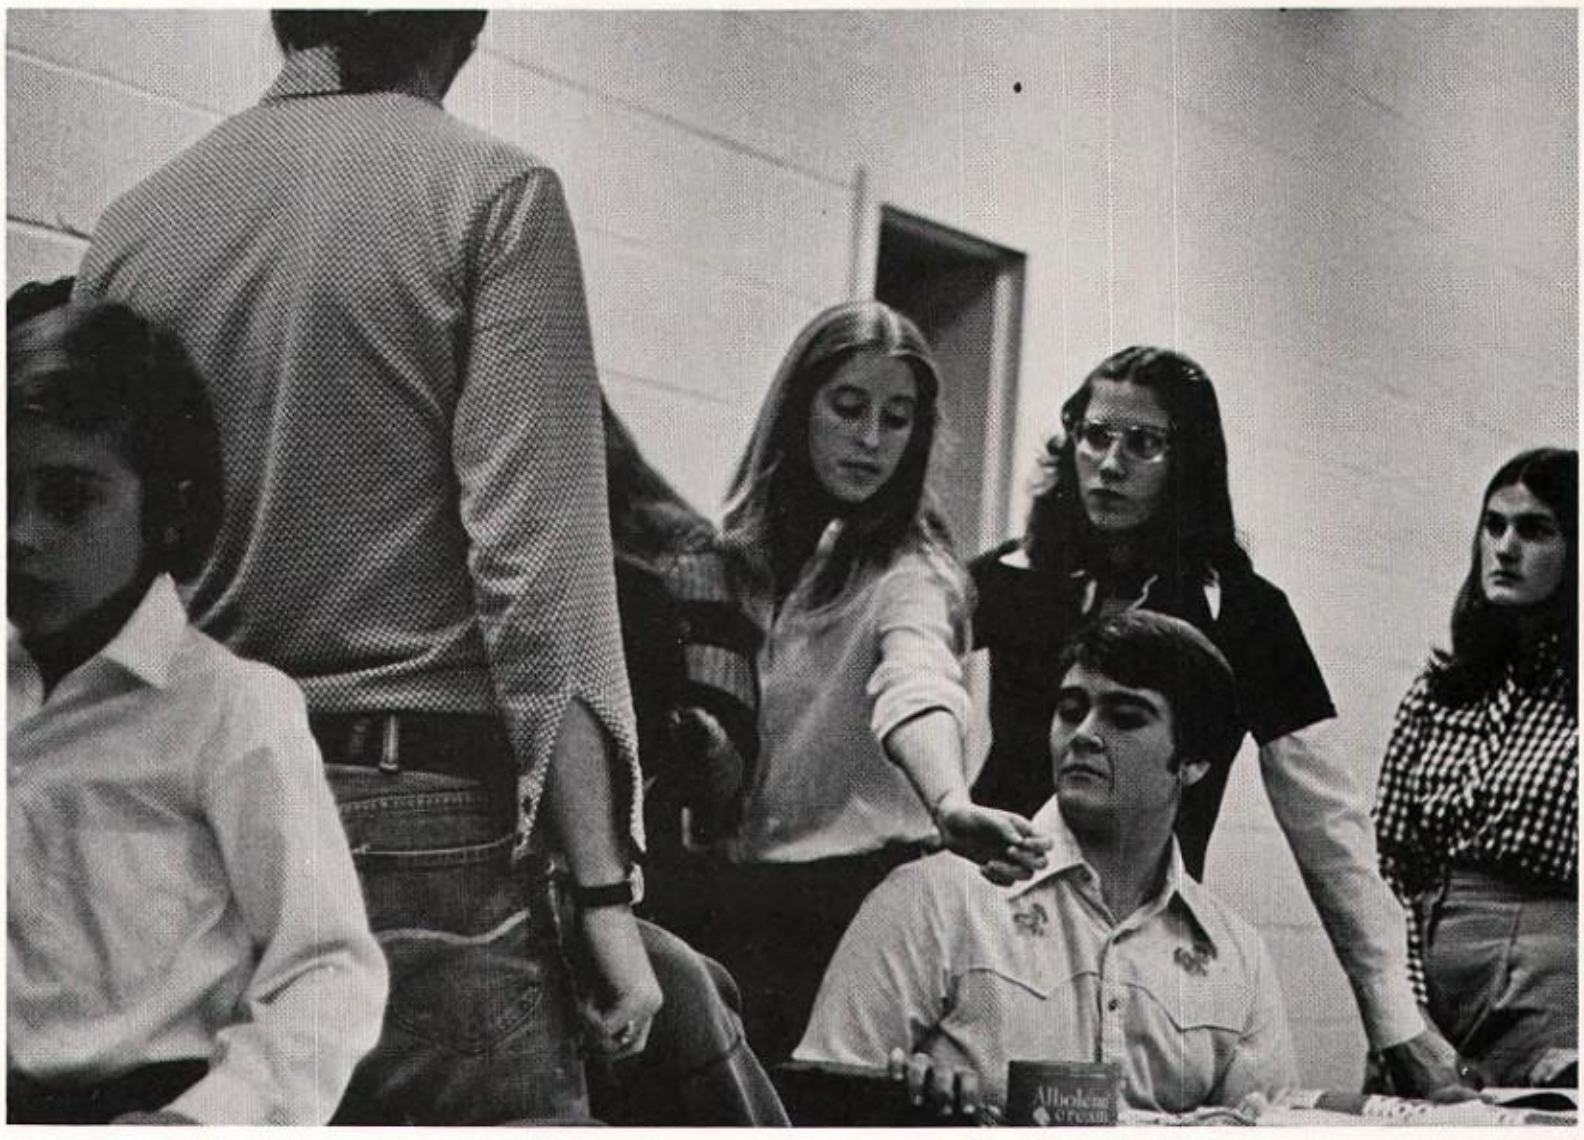
Thoreau picks huckleberries with Edward Emerson; played by Robbie Shepard.



Bob Borys as Bailey, Henry's cell mate.

Julie Hemstreet as Ellen.

Thoreau dreams about the Mexican War.



When the Avon lady gets here, ask her what's a Nehemiah Ball?

The Band

In Concert

One of the greatest discovered paths this year has been Mr. Frazen's revitalization of the band. Music is back, the band is back and growing.

ORGANIZATIONS

N.H.S. Revitalized

One of the many service groups that are involved in contributing to Jesuit is the National Honor Society. The N.H.S. has a membership based upon invitation, resulting in strict qualifications for nominees.

The moderator, Fr. Kerry Clark, S.J., explained the qualifications, "Membership is based upon four things: academic achievement, meaning a grade-point average of at least 3.00; outstanding character; leadership abilities; and previous service to the school." He commented that the last two are most important and count very heavily as far as membership goes. Students are nominated by the teachers, and then members vote on acceptance.

What does it do, though? The N.H.S. serves various needs in the school itself. During College Day the N.H.S. welcomed the representatives from the various colleges and ushered them throughout the school. At present the N.H.S. is also undertaking a Tutoring Program to help students who are weak in certain courses. Also the Society sorted IBM cards for a computer analysis of courses and departments here at Jesuit.

Presently the N.H.S. is setting up a catalogue of all the visual aids, so that the further use of these aids would be facilitated. The N.H.S. is once again serving the school's demands.

The staff of the Last Roundup has enjoyed watching WJHS, during homeroom this year.

Without doubt it has been the best television we've seen.

T.V. Crew And Light Crew

Several members of the newspaper staff. These students have worked hard to offer to Jesuit a fine newspaper.

Index

(Although this index is by no means perfect or complete, we hope that it will be of some service to you, the reader. Most people probably appear on more pages than are indicated here; and in one or two cases, a person may appear fewer times, due to a last minute change of pictures dictated by necessity.)

One afternoon we overheard Mr. Prince say something to one of his students which somehow applies to this yearbook and the work we've put in on it. He said, "It's not profitable, but it's worthwhile." Over the course of this year, that thought has been valuable to us. Thanks."

Question?

"Do you Know what I mean?
Have your eyes really seen?"

"Hello?

Hello?"

"Good morning; this is Monday
Day 6 . . . "

This has been The Last Roundup.
